Areas Of Service

Armed Forces, Active Duty

The Archdiocese for the Military Services is responsible for the pastoral care of the Catholic men and women who serve on active duty in the five branches of the U.S. Armed Forces. It is also responsible for the dependents of these persons. Included also are the cadets and resident personnel of the three military academies (West Point, the U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis) and the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London as well as the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point NY. The pastor at West Point is a civilian priest of the Archdiocese of New York. Members of the Marines and Coast Guard are served by Navy Chaplains.

Armed Forces, Reserves

In addition to the personnel on active duty in the Armed Forces, there is a considerable reserve component. Some of these personnel serve a number of days each year on active duty with a branch of the service; some serve on extended tours of active duty; all are subject to recall to active duty in a national emergency. These persons are considered as members of the military when on active duty. In addition to the reserve components of the Army, Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard, there is also the Army National Guard and the Air Guard, which are organized on a state by state basis. When these reserve persons are on active duty, they fall under the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese for the Military Services.

There are chaplains on reserve status who serve certain amounts of time each year. While on active duty, they serve as any other chaplain in the pastoral care of Catholics at their respective base or unit of assignment. They receive the same training as active duty chaplains and must receive the endorsement of the Archdiocese and permission of their ecclesiastical superiors.

Veterans Administration

The Archdiocese for the Military Services is responsible for the spiritual care of Catholics at 172 V.A. hospitals. Chaplaincy services are provided by full and part-time priests, many of whom are retired military chaplains. The jurisdiction of the Archdiocese extends to those patients resident in the hospitals and to V.A. personnel while on duty or who are in residence at the hospitals.

U.S. Government Civilian Employees Abroad

U.S. citizens in government service abroad (and their dependents living with them) are members of the Archdiocese for the Military Services. These people serve in 230 embassies and consulates, in the Foreign Commercial Service, U.S. Information Agency, C.I.A., Trade Commissions, etc.

There are only two full-time Catholic chaplains conducting pastoral programs for embassies: in Moscow and Bonn. The Embassy in Moscow has a program conducted by the Augustinians of the Assumption and is separate from the Archdiocese; it serves Catholics in the Foreign Service of other countries as well as Americans.

Civil Air Patrol

The Civil Air Patrol, as an auxiliary of the Air Force, was put under the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese for the Military Services. By its nature, the C.A.P. is composed of part-time volunteers, often in a school environment, and has approximately 100 volunteer chaplains. These laity and clergy fall under the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese only when actively participating in C.A.P. exercises.
